Train the Trainer

Teaching our young people to stand on their own

Awaken the Spirit is an empowering workshop for youth and young adults based on a 4-part model: Identity, Awareness, Vision & Resiliency.

Becoming trained as a facilitator of this life-changing model is a beneficial and cost effective way for communities & organizations to offer quality workshops in their own communities throughout the year and years to come.

What it is

Awaken the Spirit, Train-the-Trainer

is an intensive 3-day facilitator certification workshop, where techniques and strategies for implementing the 4-part model, will be demonstrated, practiced and shared in a positive setting.

Who should attend

- Income Assistance Workers
- Employment & Training Workers
- Health & Wellness Workers
- Child Protection Workers
- Educators/Counsellors
- Anyone who works with or provides programming for Indigenous youth and young adults, or those who would like to learn more about this innovative workshop.

What is included

- Comprehensive facilitator manual
- Complete Workbook on USB
- Facilitator Designation Certificate
- Complimentary lunch along with daily snacks and refreshments
- Access to on-going support and future training opportunities

What people have said:

“This is a must for anyone working frontline with youth, adults or just for themselves! Thank you for having me and sharing your extensive knowledge. Chi-Miigwetch”

- Jocelyn

“I came in to take the workshop to facilitate in the future. I did not know I would be changing my own life along this journey! This workshop comes highly recommended in my books.”
